Coverage

This pay scale summary applies in New South Wales in respect of the employment by an employer of gatekeepers and all persons, employed in or in connection with the industry or industries of security or watching including persons employed in control rooms to monitor, respond to or act upon alarm systems excepting persons employed as typists, stenographers, bookkeepers, switchboard operators or engaged in any clerical capacity whatsoever, and also excepting security officers employed in or in connection with a retail shop provided those security officers are directly employed by the retail shop; and also excluding the County of Yancowinna within the jurisdiction of the Security and Cleaning, &c. (State) Conciliation Committee (as defined in the coverage provisions).

Employers may be covered by this scale by being named in the coverage provisions, or by transmission of business.

For detail of the coverage provisions see the 26 March 2006 version of the award.

Classifications

For detail of classification descriptions see the 26 March 2006 version of the award.

Juniors

Junior rates of pay are not covered by this pay scale summary.

Trainees

A trainee's wage rate is the relevant wage rate which would apply under this pay scale summary (or proportionately for part-time employees) provided that off-the-job training will be unpaid.

Apprentices

Apprentice rates of pay are not covered by this pay scale summary.

Frequency of payment

The employer must pay wages and other moneys to employees either weekly or fortnightly, depending on the employers pay period. The time of payment must not be more than seventy-two hours from the time when such wages become due and must not be later than Thursday in the week.

Note that the frequency of payment provisions in this pay scale summary do not apply to employees who are covered by a workplace agreement or contract of employment containing frequency of payment provisions that provide for payments in respect of periods of one month or less. Such employees are guaranteed payment in accordance with the frequency of payment provisions in the workplace agreement or contract of employment.

Pay Scale Summary – Background

This summary sets out basic classification wages, and associated provisions, derived from the 26 March 2006 version of the award. Other conditions of employment (including allowances, penalties and loadings) may be contained in an award, workplace agreement, contract of employment, or Notional Agreement Preserving State Awards.

Demonstrated compliance with the details published in this pay scale summary by an employer bound to observe the provisions of the equivalent preserved Australian Pay and Classification Scale (pay scale) will be deemed by the Workplace Ombudsman as satisfying the employer's obligations under the pay scale, provided that the employee is correctly classified and paid for each hour worked in accordance with the pay scale. The keeping of time and wages records and the issuing of payslips is required by law and will be needed to demonstrate to the Workplace Ombudsman compliance with the pay scale.

This pay scale summary provides information about the effect of Australian Fair Pay Commission decisions. Any questions concerning this summary, or the entitlements of employees under the pay scale or the related award should be directed to the Workplace Infoline on 1300 363 264.

Transitional Arrangements

Despite the coverage provisions of the pay scale, an employee or employer may not be covered by the pay scale while the employee or employer is covered by one of the following:

- a pre-reform federal certified agreement
- a pre-reform federal Australian Workplace Agreement
- an individual or collective preserved State agreement
- a transitional award (for employers in the federal system not covered by the 26 March 2006 workplace reforms, these will apply for up to 5 years from 27 March 2006).
