Access, accountability & reporting

Transparency about our operations is important to us. We demonstrate our accountability and efficiency by providing readily accessible information to you.

On this page, you can learn how to access information and reports about us from our website or by contacting us.

Accessing information

You can access information from us under our Information Access Policy. Go to the Accessing our information page to find:

- about our Information Publication Scheme
- how to access information under our Information Access Policy
- how to make a freedom of information request
- what previous freedom of information requests have been made.

Reporting to parliament

We report specific information either directly to Parliament, or make it accessible on our website.

This information includes our:

- Annual reports
- Budgets and expenditures
- Departmental file listings

Reports and submissions

We write and publish reports to let you know about activities we're doing.

For more information and to access these reports go to:

- Annual reports
- Research reports
- Inquiry reports

We also make submissions to reviews and prepare responses to research reports which relate to our activities.

You can see the submissions and responses we've made on our Submissions page.

You might also be interested in

- Our policies
The Fair Work Ombudsman is committed to providing advice that you can rely on. The information contained on this website is general in nature. If you are unsure about how it applies to your situation you can call our Infoline on 13 13 94 or speak with a union, industry association or workplace relations professional. Visitors are warned that this site may inadvertently contain names or pictures of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who have recently died.