

Melton worker back-paid $18,000

9 November 2011

An operations manager at Melton in country Victoria has been back-paid a total of $18,000 following intervention by the Fair Work Ombudsman.

The 62-year-old male employee was not paid annual leave and long service leave entitlements when his job was terminated.

After lodging a complaint with the Fair Work Ombudsman, the employee was promptly reimbursed all outstanding entitlements without the need for further action.

"It's a fact that some businesses inadvertently breach workplace laws. When we find mistakes, we're here to assist and give practical advice to employers on how to voluntarily fix them," says Fair Work Ombudsman Nicholas Wilson.

"This business has now corrected the errors that led to the underpayments and put processes in place to ensure they will not happen again."

The Fair Work Ombudsman recovered a total of $7.5 million back-pay for 3556 workers in Victoria last financial year.

Workers or employers seeking support should get in touch with the Fair Work Ombudsman via the website - www.fairwork.gov.au - or call the Fair Work Infoline on 13 13 94.

A free interpreter service is available on 13 14 50, and information on the website is translated into 27 different languages.

The website has a number of tools and resources, including PayCheck Plus and an Award Finder, to assist business-owners calculate the correct pay for their employees.

Free documentation is available Online for employers to use when hiring, managing and dismissing staff, including letters of engagement and probation, timesheet and pay slip templates, leave application forms, a self-audit check list and workplace complaint form.

An 'Industries' section on the website provides extra, specialised information for employers and employees in the retail, cleaning, clerical, hair and beauty, security, horticulture, fast food and hospitality industries.
